

ESSEX vs. WARWICKSHIRE

Chelmsford Social Club play hosts to the first home game of the 2022/2023 UKDA Premier season!

The Ladies 'B' lost 2-4, with Lynn Kelly, Kerry Rudd, Sue Waterman and Ann Farmer losing the first 4-sets, with Chloe McKivett (20.59) the Lady of the match. Essex won the last 2-sets with wins for Jade Gofford (16.32) and Karen Breen (15.93).

The Men's 'B' won 8-4 with Michael Hancocks (27.83) man of the match. Also winning were Shaun Fox (25.59), Jamie Peetoom (25.35), Andrew Currivan (25.06), Scott Lawrie (24.84), Jason Murphy (24.80), Darren Richardson (24.02), Danny McIntyre (22.96). Losing out were Bryan Margerison, Simon Monk, Robert Donat and Phil Brewster, who lost to Warwickshire's man of the match, Nigel Heydon (27.57).

The Ladies 'A' lost 2-4. Leanne Halls (19.27) was lady of the match, and Karen Williams (19.06) also victorious. Tammy Montgomery (23.12) beat Wendy Collins to win Warwickshire's match award. Stacey Ellis, Carol Pinfold and Donna Gleed also lost.

The Men's 'A' won 9-3. Although Phil Halls lost the opening; Essex reeled off the next 6-sets with wins from man of the match Keegan Brown (37.11); Richie Howson (30.73); Brad Halls (26.07), Joe Russell (26.03), Paul Marsh (29.42) and Steve Haggerty (24.93); Darren Peetoom lost out 2-4 to Warwickshire's man of the match Jamie Atkins (28.05); also, Lennie Holmes lost the 11th set. There were wins for Ben Adams (26.36), Craig Vickers (25.69) and Steve Haggerty (27.96) to complete a great 24-15 home win.

Next up is an away game against Champions Lancashire in Wigan.