

IN-HOUSE GRAND PRIX COMPETITION

- An in-house divisional league-based competition played over four weeks by the team's top 8 players, as a round robin fixture, with the top placed player qualifying for the knockout stage.
- Format is the same as the league... 'A' Division best of 7-legs and 'B' Division best of 5-legs.
- An entry fee of a suggestion of £15 per team to be paid at the February meeting to be used as a minimum prize money per division for Winner, Runner-up and losing Semi-finalists. ('A' division = £135 – 'B' division £150)
- In additional, each player could pay 50 pence per game costing £3.50 for each of the 8 players that are taking part over the 4-weeks, of which 50% of these total takings after the 4-weeks to be paid directly into the Men's Superleague account to be added to the prize fund; the other 50% to be kept by the team to either give out as prize money internally or just add to their own funds. (Note 'A' division will have a team less, therefore prize fund will be slightly lower...see next page for details)
